

Southeastern
Michigan
University

Start Your Journey
Towards A Rewarding Career

Southeastern Michigan University

About Southeastern Michigan University

Southeastern Michigan University is one of the prominent distance learning university that is offering accredited degree programs for students and working professionals around the globe. Our University offers a unique learning experience for students and working adults which will help them to climb the career ladder faster. Southeastern Michigan University offers programs in fields such as education, counseling, law, health sciences, performing arts, business, and more.

Additionally, Southeastern Michigan University graduates and alumni are sought after by prestigious companies for their honesty, professional discipline, and versatility. Our graduates are confident and competent, ready to make a lasting impact on their profession and their community.

Message from the Dean

Southeastern Michigan University is one of the prominent distance learning university that is offering accredited degree programs for students and working professionals around the globe. Our University offers a unique learning experience for students and working adults which will help them to climb the career ladder faster. Southeastern Michigan University offers programs in fields such as education, counseling, law, health sciences, performing arts, business, and more.

Additionally, Southeastern Michigan University graduates and alumni are sought after by prestigious companies for their honesty, professional discipline, and versatility. Our graduates are confident and competent, ready to make a lasting impact on their profession and their community.

MISSION

To elevate the quality of education by enabling research of the highest caliber, increasing our impact on the society through better usage and analysis of the research outcomes. We aim to introduce new methods of teaching and learning, to improve the academic experience of our students, building the future generator that reshapes the global economy.

VISION

To attract and develop the inclination of students towards online education, to create the largest community of diverse individuals and become the leading distance learning university

Core Values

- Excellence

SMICH commits to excellence at both individual and university level, challenging ourselves, striving to create exemplary outcomes from all our academic programs.

- Compassion

We yearn to instill kindness, promoting compassion and mutual respect as a guiding principle to serve all, creating a society that stands together.

- Integrity

SMICH aims to be professed as an entity that practices integrity, with coherency between its actions and words being reflected in all areas of academic work.

- Diversity

SMICH welcomes diverse people, ideas and perspectives, striving to create a community that fosters inclusivity and promotes a constructive course of diversity.

Discover How We Equip You to Take the World Heads On

- Global Exposure

The online learning platform allows students and teachers from across the world to converse and share experiences in real-time

- Advanced Curriculum

Courses of each program are prepared by experts, ensuring high quality sustainable curricula designed to engage and empower learners.

- International Faculty

All courses are led by a competent panel of teachers having vast industry knowledge and are experienced at delivering lectures online

- Real-World Experience

Each program allows candidates to and acquire relevant skills that make you more marketable in the job market

World-Class Education Online That Promises Success For Learners

Flexibility

Start studying at any time and from anywhere you can have an internet connection

Affordability

Explore your financial aid and scholarship options, and make your own payment plan.

Employability

Acquire skills relevant to your profession, and stand-out amongst other candidates

Community

Interact and converse with a diverse community of faculty, staff and students.

Offering Academic Programs in 15 Versatile Domains to Reach Your Career Goals

Business & Management

Natural Sciences

Computer Science

Social Sciences

Engineering

Health Sciences

Education

Occupational Safety

Psychology

Political Science

Criminal Justice

Performing Arts

Law & Legal

Applied Arts

Social Services

We Are Dedicated To Support Your Education

Southeastern Michigan University offers unparalleled support to its students, providing them assistance in every aspect whether it is academic or financial.

Academic Resources

Students can readily access and benefit from the valuable resources designed to help them amplify and improve their learning, and facilitate their academic pursuits.

Advisory Services

Wide range of support and guidance for students including admissions, enrolment, career pathways, course advice, financial management and mental health.

Scholarship & Financial Aid

We offer well-structured, and affordable fee plans along with multiple financial support options, allowing them to acquire high quality education loan free.

RESEARCH AT SOUTHEASTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

Southeastern Michigan University is one of the most research-intensive distance learning university. With world-leading researchers, state-of-the-art facilities and a culture that promotes innovation, we're devoted to providing research that is highly valued by global communities.

The Southeastern Michigan University is a place where reputed and expert researchers gather together in modern research facilities to make discoveries and innovations that address the globally faced challenges.

